- 13.1 A Member, Member Firm, Student or Affiliate shall be liable to disciplinary action if:
- (a) they have been guilty of misconduct when carrying out their professional duties or otherwise;
 - (b) they have performed their professional work or conducted their practice or performed the duties of their employment, improperly, inefficiently or incompetently to such an extent or on such number of occasions as to bring discredit to themselves or their practice, to the Institute, or to the accountancy profession;
 - (c) they have committed any breach of these Bye-laws or of any regulations, policies and procedures in respect of which they are bound;
 - (d) in connection with attempts by the Institute to make arrangements with them for a monitoring visit, they fail to respond to communications from the Institute and/or fail to co-operate promptly and effectively as regards acceptable arrangements for the monitoring visit; and

- (e) they have been disciplined by another professional body or under some other disciplinary process.

13.2 Each of the grounds for liability to disciplinary action shall be without prejudice to the generality of any of the other paragraphs in these Bye-laws.

- (a) "Misconduct" includes (but is not limited to) any act of default likely to bring discredit to the Member, Student, Affiliate or Member Firm in question or to the Institute or the accountancy profession.
- (b) The fact that a Member, Student, Affiliate or Member Firm:
 - (i) has, before a court of competent jurisdiction in the United Kingdom or in a superior court of any country whose judgements are in the opinion of the Institute relevant, pleaded guilty to or been found guilty of or found as fact to have engaged in of any offence discreditable to them, or to the Institute or the accountancy profession;
 - (ii) has in any civil proceedings before any court of competent jurisdiction in the United Kingdom or in a superior court of any country whose judgements are enforceable in the United Kingdom been found to have acted fraudulently or dishonestly; shall be conclusive proof of misconduct.

- (c) In deciding whether a Member, Student, Affiliate or Member Firm has been guilty of misconduct, regard may be had to any code of practice, ethical or technical, considered appropriate by the Institute and to any regulations made under these Bye-laws.

13.3 Fee disputes shall not be dealt with through the disciplinary process.

14 Data protection

14.1 The Institute and IPA may process the personal data of Members, individuals belonging to Member Firms, Students and Affiliates subject to the provisions of the Data Protection Act 2018 and any other relevant legislation. In certain circumstances this may include disclosure of such data to proper authorities in accordance with the law and to meet the regulatory and supervisory obligations of the Institute and IPA.

15 Notices

15.1 Anything sent or supplied by or to the Institute under these Bye-laws (including but not limited to any notice, membership certificate or other document) may be sent or supplied in any way (including by means of a website and/or by use of electronic communications).

- 15.2 Any notice to be given to or by any person under these Bye-laws shall be in writing or shall be given by means of a website and or by use of an electronic communication to an address for the time being notified for that purpose to the person giving the notice.
- 15.3 In this bye-law, “address” in relation to electronic communications includes any number, electronic mail address or other address used for the purposes of such communications
- 15.4 The Institute may give any notice or document (including a membership certificate) to a Member, Student, Affiliate or Member Firm either personally or by sending it by post or other delivery service in a first-class prepaid envelope addressed to the Member, Student, Affiliate or Member Firm at their registered address or by leaving it at that address. The Institute may give any notice or document to any Member, Student, Affiliate or Member Firm by means of a website and/or by use of an electronic communication to an address for the time being notified to the Institute by the Member, Student, Affiliate or Member Firm.
- 15.5 In the case of a Member Firm, all notices or documents shall be given to the principal contact whose name is included in the Register of Member Firms. Notice so given shall be sufficient notice to all Members, Students and Affiliates of the Member Firm.
- 15.6 Where a Member, or Student, Affiliate or Member Firm has a registered address outside the United Kingdom but has notified the Institute of an address within the United Kingdom at which notices or other documents may be given to them or an address to which notices may be sent using electronic communication or by means of a website, they shall be entitled to have notices given to them at that address or by means of a website, but otherwise no such Member, Student, Affiliate or Member Firm shall be entitled to receive any notice or document from the Institute.
- 15.7 If on three consecutive occasions notices or other documents have been sent through the post to any Member, Student, Affiliate or Member Firm at their registered address or their address for the service of notices but have been returned undelivered, such Member, Student, Affiliate or Member Firm shall not be entitled to receive any more notices or other documents from the Institute until they shall have communicated with the Institute and supplied in writing a new registered address or address within the United Kingdom for the service of notices.
- 15.8 Any notice, certificate or other document, addressed to a Member, Student, Affiliate or Member Firm at their registered address or address for service in the United Kingdom shall, if sent by post, be deemed to have been given at the expiration of 48 hours after posting and, if sent by electronic communication (including by means of a website), be deemed to have been given at the expiration of 24 hours after the electronic communication was sent or placed on the website. In proving such service or delivery for disciplinary purposes it shall be sufficient to prove that the envelope containing the notice or document was properly addressed and put into the post as a prepaid letter or, in the case of a notice sent by electronic communication, to prove that it was sent. Any notice, certificate or other document not sent by post but delivered or left at a registered address or address for service in the United Kingdom shall be deemed to have been served or delivered on the day on which it was so delivered or left.
- 15.9 Any notice to be given by the Institute to Members, Students, Affiliates or Member Firms and not otherwise provided for by these Bye-laws shall be sufficiently given if given by advertisement in at least one leading daily national newspaper published in the United Kingdom or through the official journal of the Institute (Financial Accountant) or on the website of the Institute. Any notice given by advertisement shall be deemed to have been served at noon on the day on which the advertisement first appears.

16 Branches and other membership groups

- 16.1 The Institute may form branches and other membership groups in any part of the world subject to the express prior approval of the Board and may dissolve any such branches or groups at any time. The Institute may from time to time make regulations for the governance and control of these branches and other membership groups.

17 Other regulations, policies and procedures

- 17.1 The Institute may make, vary or rescind regulations, policies and procedures from time to time in relation to these Bye-laws or in relation to any other matter which they consider necessary or desirable.
