Anti-money laundering supervision (AML)

Members and IFA member firms providing accountancy services, trust and company services or related services such as tax advice, audit or insolvency by way of business to the public must comply with the requirements of the Money Laundering Regulations 2017 (MLR 2017) and must be supervised for compliance with these regulations by a supervisory authority.

The IFA automatically supervises member firms under MLR 2017. Firms that provide trust or company services as part of their main accountancy practice, and which meet the definition of a member firm, will be supervised by the IFA for all their work. In Section B (practising certificate application) of the application form we require you to indicate your AML supervisory body if you are already supervised. We reserve the right to communicate with your AML supervisory body to confirm that you are supervised by them for AML.

If your firm is not yet supervised by the IFA but meets the definition of an IFA member firm as outlined in the IFA Bye-laws, the IFA will make contact with you in order to act as your AML supervisory body. All partners will need to pass a fit and proper check and the prescribed firm supervision fee paid before the IFA can supervise the firm for AML.

Entry requirements for the IFA to supervise a firm for AML

AML supervision by the IFA is undertaken at member firm level. Your firm will need to meet one of the definitions below in order to be supervised by the IFA for AML.

- (a) a partnership engaged in public practice of which more than 50% of the rights to vote on all, or substantially all, matters of substance at meetings of the partnership are held by members; or
- (b) a limited liability partnership engaged in public practice of which more than 50% of the rights to vote on all, or substantially all, matters of substance at meetings of the partnership are held by members; or
- (c) any body corporate (other than a limited liability partnership) engaged in public practice of which:
 - (i) 50% or more of the directors are members; and
 - (ii) more than 50% of the nominal value of the voting shares is held by members; and
 - (iii) more than 50% of the aggregate in nominal value of the voting and non-voting shares are held by members;

If you request to be supervised by the IFA and meet the above definition based on the information included in this application form, the compliance team will contact you once you have been approved.

Entry requirements for an affiliate

An affiliate is a non-IFA member who is a director, partner or LLP member in a firm regulated and supervised by the IFA.

If you are regulated by the IFA for compliance with the Money Laundering Regulations, then all BOOMs who are not IFA members will automatically become affiliates of the IFA.
